

The Chancellor's Advisory Committee on Work and Family:
What is it and what can it do for you?

Angus Chandler and Abby Kroken

BSPPA Networking Meeting

7/20/2017

CACWF Mission

- Promote an environment for faculty, staff, non-Senate academics, post docs, and students that enhances their ability to meet their responsibilities to the University and their responsibilities to children, elders, partners and others
- Advise the Chancellor and other campus administrators on strategies, practices, programs, policies and benefits that further this goal.

CACWF

- Created in 1989
- Diverse membership (25+ individuals) from across campus
- Half-day retreat in October where priorities are set (thus we want your input!)
- Meet with Chancellor in Spring to make recommendations

Current Topics

- Lactation/changing rooms
- Affordable/accessible child care (home child care network)
- Input on Campus Climate Survey

Back-up care

- Provides highly-subsidized emergency childcare
- Began in 2011 for Faculty and 2013 for undergraduate and graduate students
- In 2016/2017 CACWF wrote a proposal to expand to postdocs and presented to the Office of the VC for Research.

Affordable Family Housing

- Met with various Vice Chancellors over the past two years and made official recommendations
- Formed the Family Housing Advisory Committee
- Short-term transitional housing for postdocs pilot program
- Abby Kroken is currently on the Housing Master Plan Advisory Group
